Press / Reviews

"Saved By Scarlet proved themselves once again as savants of unhinged precision with 'Memory Relapse'. After this release, it's safe to say that we can always depend on this band to deliver tracks that triumph by putting emotive friction at the epicenter of their sound—one that's so raw it's practically carnal."

"The band released their first single 'Black Knight' which achieved significant success reaching #5 on the national CMW rock radio charts. The following year, they released 'Lie of The Pharisees' which climbed to #7 and 'Memory Relapse' at #6, further solidifying their presence in the rock and metal scene."

"The band's new song 'Black Knight' is a level-up in musical sophistication and thematic maturity for the band. It hints at the reality that our soul's journey is truly the most epic adventure story, all while showcasing technical mastery. Listeners take heed: you'll want to hear more from these fiery bards."

"The instruments on the band's new EP are tight, crisp, and at times edgy, while the production quality is top-notch. The vocals are the hardest we have ever heard from the band and it signals the evolution of their music towards a heavier sound!"
